

COUPLE-BEGGAR

Meaning: A couple-beggar is a pair of individuals, typically a couple, who solicit money or assistance from others, often by sharing personal stories of hardship.

1. The couple-beggar approached us with a heartfelt story about their struggles.
2. In the bustling city, the couple-beggar often drew sympathetic glances from passersby.
3. Despite their plight, the couple-beggar always managed to maintain a sense of hope.
4. We were surprised to find that the couple-beggar had formed a tight-knit community with others in similar situations.
5. The couple-beggar shared their last meal with a stray dog, showcasing their kindness amidst hardship.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/couple-beggar>