

COUPLER

Meaning: A coupler is a device used to connect or link two parts, such as sections of a pipeline or train cars, enabling them to function together.

1. The engineer explained how the coupler would connect the two sections of the pipeline.
2. In the world of model trains, a coupler is essential for linking cars together smoothly.
3. The technician replaced the faulty coupler to restore the audio connection between the devices.
4. During the assembly of the machine, she carefully adjusted the coupler to ensure proper alignment.
5. The coupler design has improved significantly, enhancing both strength and flexibility in various applications.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coupler>