

COUPLING

Meaning: Coupling refers to the process or mechanism of joining or connecting two systems or components to enable interaction or functionality between them.

1. The coupling of the two systems resulted in enhanced performance and efficiency.
2. In engineering, the coupling mechanism plays a crucial role in connecting different components.
3. Their emotional coupling allowed them to understand each other without the need for words.
4. The researchers studied the coupling of environmental factors and their impact on wildlife behavior.
5. A strong coupling between theory and practice is essential for effective learning in any discipline.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coupling>