COURB

Meaning: Courb (noun): A graceful curve or bend, often used to describe a flowing line in art or movement in dance.

1. The artist's latest sculpture featured a graceful courb that captivated all who saw it.

2. In her dance routine, she executed a perfect courb that showcased her flexibility and strength.

3. The architect designed the building with a subtle courb in the façade, adding an elegant touch to its overall appearance.

4. As the road took a sharp courb around the mountain, the view of the valley below was breathtaking.

5. The musician's melody had a beautiful courb that heightened the emotional intensity of the performance.

6. The artist decided to courb the lines in her painting to create a sense of movement.

7. He tried to courb his enthusiasm during the meeting to maintain a professional demeanor.

8. The architect's design featured a courb pathway that gracefully wound through the garden.

9. To improve the flow of the conversation, she had to courb her tendency to interrupt others.

10. The gymnast's ability to courb her body in mid-air left the audience in awe.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/courb