

COURSER

Meaning: Courser: a swift and strong horse, especially one trained for speed and agility in riding or racing.

1. The coursers galloped across the open plains, their silhouettes striking against the sunset.
2. In the world of horsemanship, a skilled courser can navigate even the most challenging terrains with ease.
3. With each swift stride, the courser demonstrated remarkable agility and speed, captivating the audience.
4. During the race, the courser emerged as the favorite, leaving its competitors trailing far behind.
5. The ancient texts often depicted coursers as noble steeds, revered for their strength and endurance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/courser>