

COURTIER

Meaning: A courtier is a person who attends a royal court as a companion or adviser, often involved in political intrigue and social maneuvering.

1. The ambitious courtier maneuvered through the royal intrigues with remarkable finesse.
2. In the lavish palace, the courtier adorned in fine silks captivated the attention of the nobility.
3. A skilled courtier knows how to flatter the king while subtly advancing his own agenda.
4. The history book detailed the life of a courtier who served loyally through tumultuous times.
5. With a charming smile, the courtier easily won the favor of both the queen and her subjects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/courtier>