

COURTLIKE

Meaning: COURTLIKE: resembling or characteristic of a court, especially in terms of formality, dignity, or atmosphere.

1. The grand hall had a courtlike atmosphere, filled with the echoes of whispered conversations.
2. Her demeanor was so dignified and courtlike that everyone instinctively respected her authority.
3. The garden was designed in a courtlike style, with symmetrical paths and carefully trimmed hedges.
4. During the debate, his argument had a courtlike precision that left no room for doubt.
5. The ceremony took place in a courtlike setting, enhancing the formality of the occasion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/courtlike>