

COVENANTING

Meaning: COVENANTING: The act of entering into a formal agreement or promise, often involving mutual commitments or rituals.

1. She found solace in the ritual of covenanting with nature each morning.
2. The two parties engaged in covenanting to ensure mutual respect and understanding.
3. Covenanting became a central theme in their discussions about community welfare.
4. He believed that covenanting was essential for building trust within the organization.
5. The ancient texts emphasized the significance of covenanting as a pathway to peace.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/covenanting>