COVETOUS

Meaning: COVETOUS: characterized by an intense desire to possess something that belongs to someone else; greedy.

1. He cast a covetous glance at the luxurious sports car parked across the street.

2. Her covetous nature led her to constantly compare herself to her more successful peers.

3. The covetous whispers among the crowd hinted at the envy they felt towards the award winner.

4. Despite his covetous desires, he knew that true happiness lay in gratitude for what he already had.

5. The artist's covetous ambition drove him to create masterpieces that would outshine his contemporaries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/covetous