

COVINOUS

Meaning: COVINOUS: characterized by an excessive desire for wealth or material gain, often at the expense of others.

1. His covinous nature was evident in the way he hoarded wealth while ignoring the needs of others.
2. Despite his covinous tendencies, he often masked his greed with a facade of generosity.
3. The villagers grew wary of the covinous merchant who exploited their trust for profit.
4. In literature, the character's covinous desires often lead to their ultimate downfall.
5. She found it hard to respect someone who was so covinous that they would betray friends for money.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/covinous>