

COWARD

Meaning: A coward is a person who lacks the courage to confront danger, difficulty, or pain.

1. He called himself a coward for not standing up to his bully.
2. In the face of danger, his instincts took over, but he felt like a coward for running away.
3. The soldier was anything but a coward, displaying immense bravery under fire.
4. She couldn't shake the feeling that her reluctance to confront her fears made her a coward.
5. To him, being a coward meant sacrificing his principles for the sake of comfort.
6. The soldier was branded a coward for not charging into battle alongside his comrades.
7. She refused to confront her fears, and many called her a coward for avoiding the challenge.
8. Despite his tough exterior, he felt like a coward when it came to expressing his true feelings.
9. In the face of adversity, it takes true courage to stand up rather than be labeled a coward.
10. Her cowardly decision to back out at the last minute disappointed her friends who were counting on her.
11. He called her a coward for backing out of the challenge at the last minute.
12. The soldier faced his fears head-on, refusing to be labeled a coward by his peers.
13. In the face of adversity, it's easy to become a coward rather than stand up for what is right.
14. She felt ashamed, knowing that she had acted like a coward instead of confronting her fears.
15. Their laughter echoed in the empty hall, mocking anyone who dared to be a coward.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coward>