

COWARDIZE

Meaning: COWARDIZE (verb): To act in a cowardly manner by abandoning one's principles or convictions in the face of difficulty or adversity.

1. To cowardize in the face of adversity is to abandon one's principles.
2. She felt that to cowardize would betray everything she stood for.
3. His decision to cowardize left his friends feeling abandoned and disappointed.
4. In moments of crisis, it's easy to succumb to the urge to cowardize rather than confront the challenge.
5. We must encourage each other not to cowardize when the stakes are high.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cowardize>