

COWARDLINESS

Meaning: Cowardliness is the quality of being excessively afraid or lacking the courage to confront difficult situations or stand up for one's beliefs.

1. His cowardliness prevented him from standing up for what he believed in.
2. In moments of crisis, her cowardliness became painfully apparent to those around her.
3. Many criticized the politician's cowardliness in the face of significant social issues.
4. He felt a deep sense of shame for his cowardliness when he backed down from the challenge.
5. The soldiers admired their leader for his bravery, contrasting it sharply with the cowardliness of others.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cowardliness>