

COWER

Meaning: COWER: to bend low and tremble in fear or apprehension.

1. The dog would cower in the corner whenever a thunderstorm rolled in.
2. Children often cower behind their parents when they hear loud noises.
3. As the shadows grew longer, she felt a fear that made her want to cower.
4. He tried to appear brave, but inside he wanted to cower from the approaching wave of uncertainty.
5. The villain's menacing laughter made the townspeople cower in fear for their safety.
6. The children began to cower in fear as the thunderstorm raged outside.
7. He watched his dog cower in the corner, trembling at the sound of fireworks.
8. She felt her confidence wane, causing her to cower in the presence of her assertive colleague.
9. As the shadows grew longer, the small animal would cower beneath the porch, seeking refuge.
10. The villain's menacing laughter made the hero's allies cower, uncertain of what would happen next.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cower>