

COWISH

Meaning: Cowish: characterized by timidity or a lack of courage; cowardly.

1. His cowish demeanor made it difficult for him to assert himself in meetings.
2. The group dismissed her suggestions, deeming them too cowish for the ambitious project.
3. Despite his cowish appearance, he surprised everyone with his bold decision.
4. She found his cowish attitude frustrating, as he often shied away from challenges.
5. In a moment of weakness, he displayed a cowish reluctance to face the truth.
6. His cowish demeanor made it difficult for others to take him seriously in meetings.
7. Despite her intelligence, she often displayed a cowish reluctance to voice her opinions.
8. The cowish behavior of the group led to missed opportunities for collaboration and growth.
9. He approached the challenge with a cowish attitude, lacking the confidence to take risks.
10. In a world that often values assertiveness, her cowish nature was both a weakness and a charm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cowish>