

COWL

Meaning: COWL: A hooded garment or covering, often part of a robe, worn to protect the head and face from the elements.

1. The monk pulled his cowl tightly around his face to shield himself from the chill of the evening air.
2. As the storm approached, the figures in the distance were obscured by the dark hoods of their cowls.
3. In the medieval play, the villain wore a black cowl that concealed his identity from the audience.
4. She admired the intricate embroidery on the cowl that adorned the statue of the ancient deity.
5. The old wizard lifted his cowl to reveal wise, penetrating eyes that seemed to see through the fog of time.
6. The monk pulled his cowl tighter around his face to shield himself from the cold wind.
7. In the dim light of the chapel, the figure in the cowl seemed almost ethereal.
8. She wore a cowl that draped elegantly over her shoulders as she entered the room.
9. The old wizard's cowl was tattered and frayed, hinting at years of usage.
10. As the storm raged outside, he settled deeper into his cowl, seeking warmth and comfort.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cowl>