

COY

Meaning: Coy: characterized by a shy or modest demeanor, often intended to be alluring or playful.

1. She felt coy when he complimented her in front of their friends.
2. The shy girl was coy about sharing her thoughts on the new project.
3. Despite her coy demeanor, she had a fierce determination to succeed.
4. He flashed a coy smile, hinting at a secret he was reluctant to reveal.
5. Her coy laughter made him more intrigued than ever.
6. She gave a coy smile, glancing away as she tried to hide her excitement.
7. Despite her coy demeanor, it was clear that she appreciated the compliment he had given her.
8. The child was coy when asked about the surprise birthday party, trying not to give anything away.
9. He approached her with a coy attitude, teasingly avoiding direct eye contact.
10. Her coy behavior at the party sparked curiosity among her friends about her new crush.
11. She gave a coy smile when he complimented her dress.
12. The child was coy, hiding behind her mother's legs when strangers approached.
13. He was too coy to admit his feelings, often avoiding eye contact.
14. With a coy glance, she invited him to join her at the party.
15. His coy demeanor made it hard to tell whether he was serious or joking.