

CRAB

Meaning: Crab: a crustacean with a broad, flattened body, typically having a pair of pincers, commonly found in marine and freshwater environments and often used as seafood.

1. The chef prepared a delicious crab dish that was the highlight of the evening.
 2. As we walked along the beach, we spotted a small crab scuttling across the sand.
 3. He always enjoyed fishing, but catching a crab was his greatest thrill.
 4. The documentary showcased the fascinating life cycle of the blue crab in the Chesapeake Bay.
 5. During the summer, we often have crab boils with friends and family in our backyard.
 6. The crab scuttled sideways across the sandy beach, searching for its next meal.
 7. During the summer, we often enjoy a seafood feast featuring fresh crab and butter.
 8. At the aquarium, the children were fascinated by the various species of crab in the tanks.
 9. As the tide came in, the little crab quickly burrowed into the sand to avoid being swept away.
 10. The chef prepared a delicious crab bisque that was the highlight of the dinner menu.
 11. The children giggled as they watched the crab scuttle across the sandy beach.
 12. After catching a fresh crab, the chef prepared a delicious seafood dish that delighted everyone.
 13. Walking along the rocky shore, I stumbled upon a vibrant blue crab hiding in a tide pool.
 14. She carefully picked up the crab and showed it to her friends, reminding them to be gentle.
 15. As the sun set, the crabs emerged from their burrows, creating a lively spectacle along the shoreline.
 16. The chef prepared a delicious crab dish that delighted all the guests at the dinner party.
 17. As the tide receded, we spotted several crabs scuttling across the sandy beach.
 18. During our vacation, we went crabbing and caught enough to make a feast for the whole family.
 19. The crab slowly emerged from its burrow, cautiously checking for any signs of danger.
 20. After a long day of fishing, we celebrated our catch with a steaming platter of crab legs.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crab>