

CRABFACED

Meaning: Crabfaced (adjective): exhibiting a sour, displeased, or disdainful expression, often characterized by a furrowed brow and pursed lips.

1. The actor's crabfaced expression perfectly captured the character's disdain for his surroundings.
2. She often found him with a crabfaced glare whenever he was deep in thought.
3. His crabfaced look suggested he was not pleased with the unexpected turn of events.
4. Despite his crabfaced demeanor, everyone knew he had a soft heart beneath the tough exterior.
5. The teacher raised an eyebrow, giving the student a crabfaced look at his late submission.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crabfaced>