

CRACK

Meaning: Crack: a sudden sharp sound or a break in continuity, often indicating a moment of surprise or emotional vulnerability.

1. The sudden crack of thunder startled everyone at the picnic.
2. She tried to hide her emotions, but a crack in her voice revealed her sadness.
3. The ice began to crack under the weight of the heavy skater.
4. He found a small crack in the wall where the sunlight peeked through.
5. As he spoke, a crack of laughter erupted from the audience.
6. She found a small crack in the wall that needed urgent repair.
7. He decided to crack open a cold drink after a long day at work.
8. During the game, he made a clever move that caused his opponent to crack under pressure.
9. As she spoke, a crack of uncertainty was evident in her voice.
10. The old wooden door had a noticeable crack that let in the cold air.
11. She tried to crack the code using her best guess, but it proved to be more complicated than expected.
12. After weeks of practice, he finally managed to crack the difficult piano piece.
13. The comedian's joke was so funny that it made everyone in the audience crack up with laughter.
14. As the ice began to melt, a loud crack echoed across the frozen lake.
15. She was determined to crack the code before the deadline.
16. After years of practice, he finally managed to crack the top ten in the tournament.
17. A small crack in the window allowed a chilly breeze to seep through.
18. The comedian's jokes always seemed to crack up the audience within minutes.