

CRANG

Meaning: 'CRANG' refers to a loud, resonant sound or noise, often associated with a clanging or crashing impact.

1. The crang of distant thunder signaled the approaching storm.
2. He felt a rush of excitement as he heard the crang of the metal gate swinging shut.
3. With a loud crang, the old bell echoed through the empty courtyard.
4. The crang of the train whistle marked the beginning of their journey.
5. As the chef dropped the pan onto the stove, it let out a satisfying crang that filled the kitchen.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crang>