

CREAK

Meaning: Creak: to make a prolonged, high-pitched sound, typically due to the movement of wood or metal under pressure or strain.

1. The old wooden floor began to creak under the weight of her footsteps.
2. As the door swung open, it let out a loud creak that echoed through the empty hallway.
3. The house was so quiet that even the slightest creak of the stairs startled him.
4. Every time the wind blew, the shutters would creak ominously against the windows.
5. He paused to listen to the creak of the swing as it swayed gently in the breeze.
6. The old wooden floor began to creak as she walked across the room.
7. He heard the door creak ominously in the stillness of the night.
8. With each step, the stairs would creak under the weight of his heavy boots.
9. The creak of the tree branches in the wind added an eerie atmosphere to the forest.
10. She winced at the creak of the rusty gate as she pushed it open.
11. The old wooden floor began to creak under the weight of the heavy furniture.
12. As the wind howled outside, the door creaked ominously in its frame.
13. She heard a soft creak behind her and turned to find the cat slinking away.
14. The bridge creaked as the cars passed over, sending shivers down my spine.
15. His voice was barely audible over the creak of the rusty hinges on the gate.