CREBROUS

Meaning: Crebrous: characterized by being layered or having multiple strata, often used to describe geological formations or sediment.

1. The crebrous layers of sediment revealed a rich history of geological activity.
2. Scientists discovered crebrous structures in the ancient rock formations during their expedition.
3. The crebrous nature of the cave walls made it difficult for researchers to gather samples.
4. Many species of fungi thrive in the crebrous environment of the forest floor.
5. The crebrous appearance of the landscape added an eerie beauty to the twilight scene.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crebrous