

CREDENDUM

Meaning: Credendum is a noun that refers to a belief or doctrine that is accepted on faith, particularly in theological or legal contexts, without the need for empirical proof.

1. The concept of credendum is often discussed in theological debates regarding faith and belief.
2. In legal contexts, the term credendum may refer to the acceptance of certain truths without requiring empirical evidence.
3. Philosophers often explore the implications of credendum in discussions about the nature of belief and knowledge.
4. The credendum of a particular doctrine can significantly influence the followers' commitment to their beliefs.
5. In literature, characters often grapple with their own credendum when faced with existential questions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/credendum>