

CREDIBLENESS

Meaning: Credibleness is the quality of being believable or trustworthy, particularly in the context of research, information, or reporting.

1. The scientist's research gained widespread acceptance due to its high credibleness.
2. Credibleness in journalism is essential for maintaining the trust of the audience.
3. To establish credibleness, the author backed her claims with extensive evidence.
4. The committee evaluated the credibleness of each candidate's qualifications before making a decision.
5. A brand's credibleness can significantly influence consumer loyalty and purchasing decisions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/credibleness>