

CREDIBLY

Meaning: CREDIBLY: in a manner that is believable or trustworthy.

1. She presented her research findings credibly, earning the respect of her peers.
2. The defense team argued credibly, providing strong evidence to support their case.
3. His ability to speak credibly about the subject matter impressed the audience.
4. The news article sourced information from multiple experts, ensuring it was reported credibly.
5. To be taken seriously, the politician needed to address the issue credibly and transparently.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/credibly>