

CREDULOUS

Meaning: CREDULOUS: inclined to believe too readily; gullible.

1. The credulous child believed every story his older brother told him.
2. Despite the outrageous claims, her credulous nature made her an easy target for scams.
3. Many people remain credulous, falling for conspiracy theories without questioning their validity.
4. His credulous attitude toward the latest fad left him disappointed after the hype faded.
5. The advertisement targeted a credulous audience, hoping to sell the product through mere suggestion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/credulous>