

CREDULOUSLY

Meaning: CREDULOUSLY: In a manner that shows a readiness to believe or trust too readily, often without sufficient evidence.

1. She listened credulously to the promises made by the salesman.
2. The audience reacted credulously to the magician's tricks, clapping enthusiastically.
3. Despite the outrageous claims, he took the news credulously, believing every word.
4. Her credulously accepting nature often led her into precarious situations.
5. He gazed credulously at the conspiracy theories circulating online, intrigued but skeptical.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/credulously>