

CREDULOUSNESS

Meaning: Credulousness is the tendency to be too ready to believe or trust in something, often without sufficient evidence or skepticism.

1. Her credulousness made her an easy target for scams.
2. The scientist cautioned against credulousness in the face of extraordinary claims.
3. His credulousness was evident when he believed every conspiracy theory he encountered.
4. Credulousness can lead to misinformation spreading rapidly among the uninformed.
5. To combat credulousness, critical thinking skills should be emphasized in education.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/credulousness>