

CREEKY

Meaning: CREEKY: characterized by a loud, high-pitched sound or noise, often produced by old or worn wooden structures or furniture when moved.

1. The old wooden floorboards were so creaky that every step echoed through the empty house.
2. She loved the charm of her creaky rocking chair, despite the occasional squeaks it made.
3. As they walked down the creaky stairs, they couldn't help but laugh at the ghostly sounds they created.
4. The creaky hinges of the door announced their arrival long before they even stepped inside.
5. He felt a twinge of nostalgia as the creaky swing swayed gently in the afternoon breeze.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/creaky>