

CREEP

Meaning: CREEP (verb): to move slowly and quietly in a stealthy manner, often in a way that causes unease or apprehension.

1. I felt a chill creep up my spine as I walked through the dark alley.
2. The cat decided to creep silently across the porch, trying not to wake anyone.
3. He could feel doubt begin to creep into his mind as the deadline approached.
4. As the sun set, shadows began to creep across the landscape, transforming it into a different world.
5. She noticed a sense of unease creep over the room as the discussion grew more tense.
6. The sound of footsteps made her heart race as she felt a creep of unease settle in.
7. He tried to creep up on his sister to give her a surprise, but she heard him coming.
8. The vines began to creep along the old, crumbling wall, reclaiming the space for nature.
9. As the night wore on, a chill would creep into the air, signaling the approach of winter.
10. You could see the creep of doubt in his eyes as he listened to the unexpected news.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/creep>