

CREEPHOLE

Meaning: Creephole: a small opening or hole in a wall or structure that allows a person to look through or access a concealed area.

1. The detective discovered a small creephole in the wall that led to an abandoned section of the building.
2. Curiosity got the best of him as he peered through the creephole, eager to uncover the secrets hidden inside.
3. In the old horror film, the protagonist uses a creephole to spy on the mysterious happenings next door.
4. The children giggled as they crawled through the creephole, pretending they were on a secret mission.
5. Finding a creephole in the attic sparked her imagination about the history of her old house.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/creephole>