

CREEPINESS

Meaning: CREEPINESS: the quality of causing an unsettling or eerie feeling, often associated with fear or discomfort.

1. The old house had an air of creepiness that sent shivers down my spine.
2. Her sudden appearance in the dark alley added an element of creepiness to the night.
3. There was a subtle creepiness in his smile that made everyone around him feel uneasy.
4. The abandoned playground radiated a sense of creepiness, as if the laughter of children still lingered in the air.
5. As she listened to the eerie stories, the creepiness of the atmosphere grew thicker with each passing moment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/creepiness>