

CREEPLY

Meaning: CREEPLY: in a slow, gradual, or stealthy manner, often causing a sense of unease or anticipation.

1. Time seemed to pass creepingly as we waited for the results to be announced.
2. Her doubts crept in creepingly, overshadowing the excitement she once felt.
3. The fog rolled in creepingly, enveloping the landscape in a thick blanket of gray.
4. He approached the dark room creepingly, every step filled with apprehension.
5. The tension in the air grew creepingly until it became almost unbearable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/creepingly>