

CRENATION

Meaning: Crenation is the process by which red blood cells shrink and develop a scalloped appearance when exposed to a hypertonic solution.

1. Crenation of red blood cells can occur when they are exposed to a hypertonic solution.
2. The biologist explained that crenation is a phenomenon often observed under a microscope.
3. When the cells shrank due to crenation, their ability to transport oxygen was compromised.
4. In osmosis experiments, crenation serves as a clear indicator of solute concentration.
5. Understanding crenation is crucial for students studying cell biology and physiology.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crenation>