

CREPUSCULINE

Meaning: Crepusculine refers to something that is related to or resembling twilight, often characterized by soft, muted light and a sense of dusk.

1. The crepusculine light bathed the horizon in shades of purple and gold as the sun began to set.
2. Her crepusculine aura seemed to draw in the twilight, making her presence even more enchanting.
3. In the crepusculine hours, the forest came alive with sounds that echoed through the fading light.
4. The artist captured the crepusculine beauty of the landscape, highlighting the fleeting moments of dusk.
5. As night fell, the crepusculine glow of the streetlamps illuminated the empty streets with a soft warmth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crepusculine>