

CREVIS

Meaning: Crevis: a narrow, deep fissure or crack in a rock or geological formation.

1. The crevis in the rock formations revealed layers of geological history.
2. As the hiker navigated the narrow crevis, she marveled at the beauty of the canyon walls.
3. A small crevis along the trail posed a challenge for even the most experienced climbers.
4. The crevis served as a refuge for various species of birds seeking shelter from the elements.
5. He stumbled upon a hidden crevis while exploring the ancient ruins, leading to a breathtaking view.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crevis>