

CRIB-BITING

Meaning: Crib-biting is a repetitive behavior in horses characterized by grasping a solid object with their teeth and pulling back, often associated with stress or boredom.

1. Crib-biting is a common behavior among horses that can indicate stress or boredom.
2. The trainer noticed that the young horse had developed a habit of crib-biting, which needed to be addressed.
3. To help curb the crib-biting, the veterinarian recommended a change in diet and more exercise.
4. Many horse owners seek solutions for crib-biting to improve their animal's well-being and prevent damage to stalls.
5. Understanding the triggers of crib-biting can be essential for finding effective management strategies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crib-biting>