

CRIBRATION

Meaning: Cribration is the process of verifying and calibrating experimental methods and measurements to ensure accuracy and reliability in scientific research.

1. Cribration is a crucial step in the scientific method for ensuring accurate results.
2. The researchers used cribration techniques to validate their experimental findings.
3. During the cribration process, they detected several anomalies in the data.
4. Understanding cribration provides insight into the reliability of various measurements.
5. The team presented their cribration findings at the annual conference to great acclaim.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cribration>