

CRIMINATION

Meaning: Crimination refers to the act of accusing or charging someone with a crime or wrongdoing.

1. The crimination of the accused was evident in the overwhelming evidence presented at trial.
2. In her speech, she addressed the issue of crimination within the justice system and its impact on the accused.
3. The investigation revealed a pattern of crimination that raised serious concerns about the integrity of the process.
4. His crimination of the suspect was met with skepticism by the jury, who demanded more proof.
5. Despite the crimination that followed the scandal, she maintained her innocence and called for a fair investigation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crimination>