

CRIMINATIVE

Meaning: Criminative refers to behavior or tendencies that are indicative of or associated with criminal activity.

1. The defendant's criminative behavior was documented in several witness testimonies.
2. In the realm of psychology, criminative tendencies can often be traced back to childhood experiences.
3. Law enforcement agencies are particularly interested in criminative patterns that emerge in certain neighborhoods.
4. Experts in criminal justice emphasize the importance of understanding criminative motives to prevent future offenses.
5. The criminative evidence presented at the trial was compelling enough to sway the jury's decision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/criminative>