

CRIMP

Meaning: Crimp (verb): To press or pinch together in order to create a decorative edge or to form waves in hair.

1. She decided to crimp the edges of the pastry to give it a decorative touch.
2. The hairstylist used a special tool to crimp her hair into beautiful waves.
3. He watched as the engineer crimped the wires together to ensure a secure connection.
4. To enhance the texture of the fabric, the designer chose to crimp the material in strategic places.
5. The children loved the way the crimped paper decorations added flair to the party.
6. She used a special tool to crimp the edges of the pastry for a decorative finish.
7. The electrician had to crimp the wires together to ensure a stable connection.
8. After crimping the fabric, the dress had a beautiful, textured appearance.
9. He watched as the technician expertly crimped the metal pieces to secure the structure.
10. The hairstylist decided to crimp her hair for a fun, retro look at the party.
11. She used a special tool to crimp the edges of the pastry for a decorative touch.
12. The technician had to crimp the wires together to ensure a secure connection.
13. With a quick motion, he learned how to crimp the aluminum foil around the food to keep it fresh.
14. The jeweler decided to crimp the metal to create a more intricate design for the bracelet.
15. After applying the adhesive, she carefully crimped the fabric to enhance the overall look of the garment.