

CRINGER

Meaning: CRINGER: A person who excessively seeks approval or flatters others, often in a way that is uncomfortable or insincere.

1. His constant need for approval made him appear as a cringer in every social setting.
2. The cringer at the party laughed too loudly at jokes that weren't even funny.
3. She couldn't stand how he always acted like a cringer, desperately trying to fit in with the group.
4. Everyone rolled their eyes at the cringer who would go out of his way to flatter the boss.
5. In a world full of confidence, he felt like a cringer, constantly seeking validation from others.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cringer>