

CRIPPLY

Meaning: Cripple (verb): to hinder or restrict the progress, effectiveness, or ability of someone or something.

1. The injury seemed to crimp her chances of competing in the marathon.
2. His lack of experience could crimp his ability to perform well in the role.
3. The unexpected rainstorm crimped our plans for an outdoor picnic.
4. She felt that the strict regulations would crimp her creativity in the project.
5. Fears about the economy could crimp consumer spending this holiday season.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cripply>