

CRITICAL

Meaning: Critical: essential or crucial for achieving a desired outcome; involving careful analysis or judgment.

1. The scientist emphasized the critical importance of conducting thorough experiments.
2. In her review, she provided critical feedback that helped improve the overall quality of the project.
3. During the meeting, he raised several critical points that needed to be addressed before moving forward.
4. The critical moment in the game came when the team scored a last-minute goal.
5. It's critical to maintain a balanced diet to ensure optimal health and well-being.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/critical>