

CRITICALITY

Meaning: Criticality refers to the state or condition of being crucially important or the point at which a process, such as a nuclear reaction, becomes self-sustaining.

1. The criticality of the situation demanded immediate action from the team.
2. In science, criticality refers to the point at which a reaction becomes self-sustaining.
3. Understanding the criticality of each step in the process can prevent costly mistakes.
4. The engineer emphasized the criticality of safety measures in the design of the new system.
5. As the deadline approached, the criticality of their project escalated, adding pressure to the team.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/criticality>