

CRITICISE

Meaning: To express disapproval or find fault with someone or something, often with the intention of providing constructive feedback.

1. Many people are quick to criticise without understanding the full context.
2. It's important to criticise constructively so that the feedback is helpful.
3. She felt it was unfair to criticise him without knowing the challenges he faced.
4. The critics began to criticise the new film for its lack of originality.
5. He often criticises the government for not addressing climate change effectively.
6. It's important to express your opinions without harshly criticising others.
7. The teacher decided to criticise the student's work constructively, highlighting areas for improvement.
8. Many fans were quick to criticise the band's latest album for its lack of originality.
9. He felt it was unfair to criticise her choices without understanding her circumstances.
10. In a debate, it's essential to criticise ideas rather than attack the person presenting them.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/criticise>