

CROP-EARED

Meaning: Crop-eared refers to having ears that are cut short or cropped, often giving a distinctive or unique appearance.

1. The old dog was beloved for his unique appearance, especially his crop-eared look that made him stand out at the park.
2. In the movie, the hero had a crop-eared sidekick that added both charm and humor to the storyline.
3. She adopted a crop-eared kitten from the shelter, drawn to its playful spirit and distinctive features.
4. The artist captured the essence of the crop-eared rabbit in his latest painting, showcasing its quirky personality.
5. During the competition, the judges were especially impressed by the agility of the crop-eared breed in the agility course.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crop-eared>