

CROSS-TINING

Meaning: Cross-tining is an agricultural technique that involves creating cross-shaped grooves in the soil to improve aeration and drainage.

1. Cross-tining is a method used in agriculture to enhance soil aeration and drainage.
2. The farmer decided to implement cross-tining to improve crop yields in the heavy clay soil.
3. By cross-tining the fields, they were able to promote healthier root development in the plants.
4. Many agronomists recommend cross-tining as a sustainable practice for long-term soil health.
5. After the cross-tining process, the garden flourished with vibrant flowers and lush greenery.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cross-tining>