

CROSSBOWER

Meaning: A crossbower is a person who uses a crossbow, particularly one skilled in aiming and shooting it accurately.

1. The skilled crossbower aimed carefully before releasing his bolt.
2. During the medieval festival, the crossbower showcased impressive accuracy in hitting the target.
3. She admired the craftsmanship of the crossbower as he demonstrated the ancient art of loading his weapon.
4. The crossbower's keen eye for distance and wind made him a formidable competitor in the archery tournament.
5. At the reenactment, the crossbower received applause for his authentic attire and mastery of the crossbow.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crossbower>